

MEXICAN SITUATION NOW AT STANDSTILL

No Developments Mark Day After Election in Republic—Results Unknown.

Washington, July 6.—The Mexican situation tonight appeared to be at a standstill. It was generally believed here that no arrangements for a meeting to settle Mexico's internal troubles could be made until the conference at Torreon between Villa and Carranza's generals conclude an adjustment of differences between the constitutionalist leaders. This probably will consume several more days.

Dr. Romulo S. Nason, Argentine minister, one of the South American mediators, today discussed mediation at length with Secretary Bryan. After the conference of hope that Carranza and Villa soon would adjust their troubles and that Carranza would be authorized by the leaders of the revolution to send delegates to confer with Huerta's representatives.

Should the joint conference between Huertistas and Carranzistas eventually be arranged, it is believed it will be held in New York.

Meagre reports of yesterday's election in that part of Mexico controlled by Huerta, in which Gen. Huerta is said to have been reelected, though by such a scant vote that the election may be declared void, caused no excitement in official circles here. President Wilson smilingly declined to comment upon it. There was an undercurrent report, however, that the election was designed to pave the way for some stratagem by Huerta. The rumor still persisted that he contemplated turning the office over to Pedro Lascurain and leaving the country. Unofficial reports were circulated that a special train bearing members of Gen. Huerta's family and families of some of his generals had left Mexico City during the day for Puerto Mexico.

An echo of trouble arising over the printing and misdirection of 30,000,000 pesos of constitutionalist money in Washington came today when a warrant was issued and forwarded to El Paso for the arrest of Santiago V. Winfield, an agent of the constitutionalist treasury department, charging him with embezzlement.

When President Wilson was asked to comment on yesterday's election in Mexico he laughed and said:

"I hardly think any comment from me is necessary."

When asked if he knew anything of Gen. Huerta's plans for leaving Mexico, he smiled again and said: "I am afraid I am not in his confidence."

The president refused to discuss mediation, saying the mediators were in recess at present in the hope that the warring factions will get together.

CROSS HILL CITIZEN DEAD

Mr. John Smith Passes Away After Short Illness.

Laurensville Herald.

Cross Hill, July 1.—Our town heard with sad surprise Tuesday morning that Mr. John W. Smith had died Monday night at his home in the Longview section. Very few here even knew of his sickness which was only a week's duration. It is remembered that a few years ago Mr. Smith was seriously ill with what was thought 'bright's' disease, but had fully recovered and was enjoying his usual health. A week ago he was again attacked by a similar trouble and passed away as stated. Mr. Smith was 51 years of age and was a quiet, unassuming man, an industrial farmer and a member of the Baptist church. The funeral and burial services were held at the Baptist cemetery Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. A. Martin.

Much sympathy is felt and expressed for the nine children, four sons and five daughters who are bereft of their father after suffering the loss of a kind mother only four months ago. Two of the girls are married, the other children are still at home.

Joseph Chamberlain Passes Away at Advanced Age—Leader in Politics.

London, July 3.—Joseph Chamberlain died here last night. His death, which removes from British politics one of the most striking figures of the past generation, came as an entire surprise, as the condition of his health was not publicly known to be worse than at any time in the past two or three years.

Mrs. Chamberlain, who never left her husband since he was stricken with paralysis seven years ago, and his son, Austen Chamberlain, were with the aged statesman when death occurred shortly before midnight at his London residence. The event cast a gloom over the London season, which was at its height.

Mr. Chamberlain's last public appearance was at a garden party on the grounds of his Birmingham home on May 6, last, when with his wife and son, he received several hundred constituents. Mr. Chamberlain was wheeled out on the lawn in a chair and appeared very emaciated and feeble when he lifted his hat to friends and neighbors in acknowledgment of their salutes.

Tariff reforms, which with imperialism were the chief policies for which Joseph Chamberlain was spokesman when in forced retirement through paralysis occurred, have suffered an almost complete eclipse. His son Austin is almost the only British statesman who advocates these policies on all occasions.

The cause of Mr. Chamberlain's death was officially announced today as heart failure. Although he had been gradually sinking since Tuesday, the members of the family had preferred that his condition should not become publicly known.

BABY SLAIN BY BOY

Little Negro Kills Infant With a Stick.

The State.

Lancaster, July 7.—News reached here today of the killing of a negro child by a small boy in one of the rural districts of the county Saturday. The child's mother, it seems, had asked a little negro boy 5 years of age to look after and amuse her baby while she went on some errand or to do some work somewhere a short distance from the house. The boy replied that he wouldn't mind the baby but would kill it if left with him. Thinking that the youthful picaninny might carry out his threat of killing her baby if left to his keeping, the mother locked the child in a room until she could get back, as she thought. But she had not been gone long ere she was called back to view the remains of her dead baby, for the little boy, who had been requested to attend the child during the mother's absence, had climbed in at the window, it is said, and with a stick had beaten the baby to death. Sheriff Hunter went yesterday to the scene of the murder, where he interviewed the youthful alleged murderer and his parents and found the facts in the case as stated above.
